Mankundu, Hooghly, West Bengal, 712139.

Dear Sir,

Under instructions and advice of my above mentioned client, I am stating you as follows :-

That the marriage was solemnized between you and my client on 22/01/2022 at Bhadreswar after that my client and you had started to live together as husband and wife at the above mentioned residence.

That due to some sudden matrimonial disputes arising between you and my client, for that my client had left the matrimonial house on 24/04/2023.

That my client is so willing to take mutual divorce with you as early as possible as because the marital tie is no more existing with you and my client.

All the relatives and the well wishers had tried their level best to reunite this marital tie but all in vain.

So I on behalf of my client sending you this legal notice to come and discuss regarding the matter of Mutual Divorce with my client within seven days from the date of receipt of this notice.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
